

About Product

• The Cranio-Maxillofacial Bone Model is an anatomically accurate replica of the human cranio-maxillofacial skeletal structure used for medical education, surgical planning, and demonstration purposes. It helps surgeons and trainees understand the complex anatomy of the skull, facial bones, mandible, and related structures. The model is widely used in orthopaedic, maxillofacial, and cranial implant training programs for preoperative visualization and practice.