

About Product

- The Femur Plates Assemblies are advanced orthopaedic implant systems designed for the fixation and stabilization of femoral fractures. These assemblies consist of anatomically contoured plates with compatible screws to provide strong and stable internal fixation. They are widely used in trauma and reconstructive orthopaedic procedures to restore proper bone alignment and promote effective healing. Manufactured from high-quality medical-grade materials, the system offers excellent strength, durability, and reliable surgical performance.

