

About Product

- The Foot & Ankle Bone Model is an anatomically accurate replica of the human foot and ankle skeletal structure used for medical education and demonstration purposes. It helps surgeons and trainees study the complex anatomy of foot and ankle bones, joints, and alignment in detail. The model is widely used in orthopaedic and trauma implant workshops for procedural planning and hands-on practice.