

About Product

- The Periprosthetic Plate Bone Model is a specialized anatomical model designed for demonstrating the application of periprosthetic fixation plates around joint prostheses. It is widely used in orthopaedic training and implant demonstrations to help surgeons understand fracture management around existing implants. The model provides realistic anatomical representation for practicing fixation techniques and procedural planning.